

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALASKA PENINSULA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 31-1924.

P. E. Harris & Company.

False Pass Cannery.

October 25, 1923.

A reservation designated as the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of February 17, 1922, P. E. Harris & Company, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its plant for the catching and canning of salmon for commercial purposes at False Pass, within the Ikatan district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1924, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate two purse seines in False Pass or in East Anchor Cove, and four traps, numbered 3, 5, 7 and 8, all as operated in the season of 1923, and may pack not to exceed sixty-four thousand five hundred (64,500) cases of salmon of all species obtained from the above gear.
2. In addition the company may operate one beach seine in Swanson Lagoon, and may pack not to exceed five thousand (5,000) cases of salmon thus secured.
3. That the pack of all species of salmon shall not exceed sixty-nine thousand five hundred (69,500) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.
4. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
5. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

S. B. DAVIS

Acting Secretary of Commerce.
